Biography

Karl Heideck focuses his practice on a wide range of areas involving complex commercial litigation, along with matters involving banking and subprime litigation.

During law school, Karl served as a Certified Legal Intern for the Montgomery County District Attorney. While interning for the Montgomery County District Attorney, Karl assisted ADA's in pre-trials division with hearings and preparation. He also conducted research for a pending homicide trial.

Prior to interning with the Montgomery County District Attorney, Karl worked as a Project Associate for Pepper Hamilton, LLP. While at Pepper Hamilton, Karl was involved with the review of client documents for discovery in major pharmaceutical litigation.
